

One small voice to urge the Commisioners to vote on June 2 so as to ensure that news programming and creative shows will not decline in quality. We do not need a Clear Channel model takeover in television. I cannot imagine why some of you think the culture will be improved by more consolidation. One size stifles all.